POWER PROVIDER EXECUTIVES PANEL

Dan Krueger, WEC Energy Group:

“I did not picture myself ever sitting on a stage like this talking about filling our energy capacity needs with renewables, but here we are.”

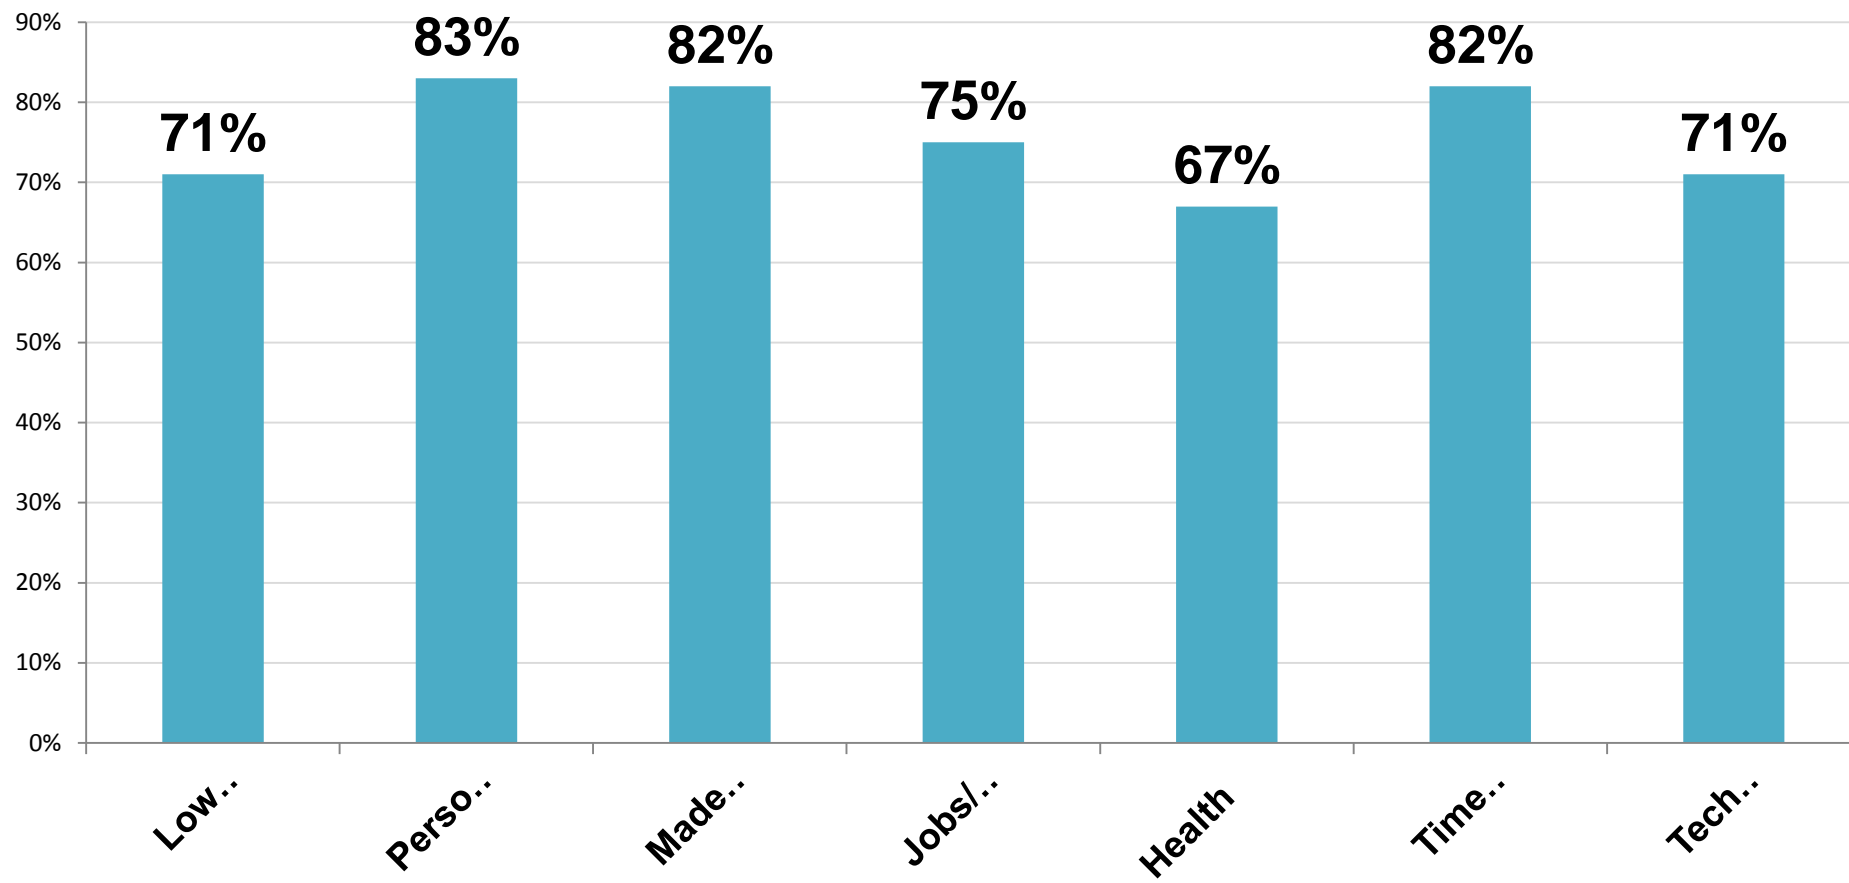

Jeff Keebler, MGE

“There are a lot corporations that are interested in corporate renewable energy. We are also seeing a lot of local companies that are interested, as well as government agencies. So we’ve developed a program to work with our customers to provide them with renewable energy technology.”

JANE BLOCH, CLEAN ENERGY COMMUNICATIONS EXPERT

“THE BOTTOM LINE IS, RENEWABLES ARE WIDELY POPULAR.”
